“ I'm so sorry to hear of Fred's passing, and so soon after Jim. We were neighbors growing up on Pearson street, and yes the music poured out of that garage or basement. Fred was always so easy going and always had a grin on his face. Haven't seen him in years. Please accept my sincere condolence and prayers.

“ I couldn't begin to share the memories I have of Fred, I have so many, from very early childhood to school years and through our adult years. From learning how to play the bass to become what I would call a great player. I always enjoyed taking rides in the country and listening to the radio, and playing name that tune, of course he always won, or would act like he didn't know the song just so I would get a point.

Calling my husband and myself on a daily basis just to see if we wanted to come down, he loved company. Fred would never say goodbye on the phone to me. he always said "over and out" well Fred this is "over and out" but not goodbye, you have always been a wonderful brother and I pray your resting easy in heaven. As always Love you sister Julie
