“ Dear Ron, Janet, Susan and Bob,

We will miss Aunt Gladys, especially her warm smile and delight when welcoming us into her home on our all too infrequent visits. She, along with your Dad, were special, and I have many happy memories of time shared with them over the years on my annual visits to Metamora.

Among my many memories of her, is a shared love of gardening, and learning of her favorite springtime lunch, a radish sandwich made from a fresh, still warm from the earth, radish just out of her garden.

Her pies were special, but her peanut brittle was in a class by itself.

Please accept our heartfelt condolences and sympathy.

Love,

Lynnea and Leonard

“ Dear Ron, Janet, Susan, and Bob, Melanie joins me in extending condolences to you for the passing of your mother, Gladys. As you grieve over your loss, remember also to celebrate a life well-lived. I remember her as a warm and gentle person. Her quiet demeanor could not hide her deep spiritual devotion. She along with her siblings helped me to understand the importance of family in ordering my life. We will miss her.

“ Dear Ron, Janet, Susan, Bob and families: David and I send our deepest condolences.
Your mom was the last of the John Zimmerman family of ten and we will miss her as we miss them all. Aunt Gladys, however, has a special place in my heart. She and Aunt Evelyn babysat me in the early 1940's and I always loved their visits to Highland Park. She and Evelyn also designed and sewed a large wardrobe of fashionable clothes for two model dolls I had long before Barbie dolls -- everything from swimsuits and dresses to tweed wool suits and coats for every weather. I cherished these, though later sent them back to Gladys for you two sisters to share when you were growing up. I remember Gladys as a young woman working in a Peoria bank and traveling extensively with her single church friends. Their group visits to our HP home were always lively occasions. Gladys also had artistic talent and often sent us hand-drawn cards when we were children. Years later, David and I loved to visit your folks on the farm, where your mom always served us delicious wedges of her homemade pies -- rhubarb and peach among our favorites. We'll always remember her quiet thoughtful ways, her quick sense of humor and her wonderful holiday dinners. Indelible memories we know you share as we send your our love and sympathy. We'll be with you in spirit this week. Lois (Baum) & David (Krupp)
